DEPARTMENTS

OF NOTE 3
Diabetes research at the South Pole.
Meet the mentors' mentors.
Expecting teens, unexpected pals.

INVESTIGATIONS 8
Stroke and cellular suicide.
How to cut a tumor's lifeline.
A meeting of minds.

98.6 DEGREES 31
A mall of science: Pitt breaks ground for what's probably its most complex building ever.

ATTENDING 32
Ross Musgrave can cut the ties, but not the cord.
What 50 years in medicine hath wrought.

ALUMNI NEWS 36
Mary Williams Clark was "a guy like that."
Remembering Tim Oliver and Hank Bahnson.

LAST CALL 40
Whistle while you dissect.

FEATURES

Modern-Day Schweitzers 12
Like the good Dr. Schweitzer, these med students felt an impulse to serve.

BY DOT TIE HORN

A Hospital Is Born 17
Thanks heavens it was hard to say "no" to Louise Lyle, founder of UPMC Presbyterian.

BY EDWIN KIESTER JR.

A Big Bang 20
Barry Brenner's work won't shut down dialysis centers, but it will slow them down.

BY ERICA LLOYD

ICU: The Episode You Won't Want to Miss 24
Many believe critical care medicine can cost fewer dollars and fewer lives.

COVER STORY BY JASON TOGYER

Cleaning up Blood 29
The Sum of Its Parts 30
New tools for critical care.

FOLLOW-UPS BY TRINA WOOD AND KRISTIN OHLSON