COFFEE TALK

A little brouhaha has been brewing since we first ran this photo on the back page of our Summer 2009 issue. Several 1950s alums have called to tell us the young docs pictured here are not, in fact, all from the Class of 1955 like we said. That much they agree on. What they can’t agree on are the names of these Joes enjoying their java. Robert Yanchus (Class of ’50) says the guy on the far left is him. Anthony Bruno (Class of ’55) says it’s really Gene Bouch (Class of ’55). And Robert E. Lee (Class of ’56) says nope, that’s Walter Dukstein (Class of ’56). And that’s just a sample of the clouds in our coffee. We give up and plan to take up easier pursuits, like memorizing the Krebs cycle. The haze may never clear on this, but we’ve enjoyed the feedback and catching up with everyone. You all really should get in touch with us more often (medmag@pitt.edu or 412-624-4152)!

YOU CAN’T MISS

A staggering debt is par for the course for many med school graduates. So, head out to the course and make par (or birdie, or bogey, or double bogey, or, well, let’s not go any further) in an effort to lighten the financial burden borne by Pitt’s newly minted docs.

Come on out to the 12th annual Pitt Med Golf Outing, which supports the school’s Scholarships and Loans Fund.

8:30 a.m., Saturday, April 30
Quicksilver Golf Club
Pittsburgh

Suggested donations:
Current Medical Students: $65
Residents: $100
Other golfers: $125
