SOUTH BY SOUTHWEST

What could be better than the University of Pittsburgh Winter Academy in Naples, Fla.? How about two winter academies? To reach even more alumni, we’ve added one in Phoenix, Ariz.

In only two years, the University of Pittsburgh Winter Academy has grown to become a premier event showcasing Pitt’s world leadership in research shaping tomorrow’s health care. Make plans now to attend—February 2008 in Naples or March 2008 in Phoenix.

For more information, please contact Pat Carver, director of alumni relations for the health sciences schools, at cpat@pitt.edu or 412-647-5307.